Petra Justiniana

Location

The city of Batumi is situated on the Black Sea coast in the south-western part of the country. The city is bustling with life, the streets overflowing with restaurants with delicious food and wine, cosy cafes with strong, tasty coffee and viewpoints such as the Alphabetic Tower, which offers views of the rooftops of the city centre, the mountains, and the sea.

A little south of Batumi is the roman fort Apsaros (Gonio Avillage). The first garrison appeared here in the 60s of the 1st century AD. The fortress was most intensively used in the time of Trajan and during the reign of Hadrian. Today, the biggest tourist attraction is the well-preserved defensive walls from the Late Roman and Byzantine periods.

Venue

The Shota Rustaveli State University in Batumi is one of the leading institutions of higher education. It has a conference hall and numerous lecture theatres equipped with multimedia equipment.

FAQ – Frequently Asked Questions

Q: Will the session organisers be provided time at the beginning of a session for an introductory statement?

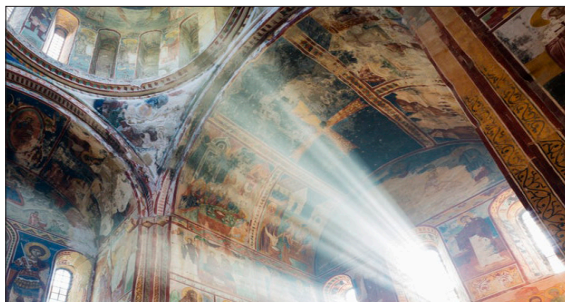

A: Yes, 10 minutes will be allotted in the programme to all sessions for this purpose.

Q: Can I have multiple presentations at the Congress?

A: One person can “take the stage” once for their presentation during the Congress. However it is perfectly fine to have several names for a paper and one “presenter” (for whom this is their moment in the spotlight). Once the call for papers has ended and we will be working on the final programme, we may offer the opportunity to the already registered participants to have a second paper in given sessions.

Q: Can I be the organizer of a session and provide an introduction to it, but present my paper in another session?

A: Yes, that’s possible if you accept not presenting a paper in your own session. Just keep in mind the minimum of papers for a session to take place is 4.
